

Permanent Improvement Fund

The district has historically been able to move interest earnings and excess operating funds to a permanent improvement fund for construction, renovations and land purchases. However, with the increases in operating funds and the reduced interest rates, these funds are not as available.